Potential Advantages:

Systematic, Repeatable Process
Style investing is a systematic, repeatable process that seeks to efficiently harvest the returns to value, momentum and profitability.

Academic Research Foundation
Decades of academic and practitioner research have shown that investing in stocks based on value, momentum and profitability may provide returns in excess of market benchmarks.

AQR senior management has been working together and implementing style-based portfolios since the mid-1990s.

Investment Approach

- The Fund seeks to invest in stocks of attractively valued Large and mid-cap emerging market companies that have positive momentum and strong profitability.
- The advisor uses a disciplined, systematic approach that employs multiple measures of value, momentum and profitability.
- The advisor ranks each stock's attractiveness for each of these three systematic styles, and selects those with a high combined score.
- The Fund's integrated approach seeks to offer a diversified, well-constructed core investment strategy that may provide returns consistently in excess of the overall market.
- Combining exposures to all three styles in an integrated portfolio can help reduce portfolio turnover and minimize transaction costs.
- Trades are executed using proprietary, automated algorithms in a liquidity-providing manner that seeks to reduce the total cost of trading.
- The Fund is designed to lower distributions of realized, particularly short-term, capital gains more so than funds that do not take tax consequences into account. However, investors should not expect that capital gains distributions will be completely eliminated.

PRINCIPAL RISKS:

The Fund is not suitable for all investors.

Emerging markets are riskier than more developed markets because they tend to develop unevenly and may never fully develop. Funds that emphasize investments in small and mid-cap companies generally will experience greater price volatility. Commodities and futures generally are volatile and involve a high degree of risk. The Adviser from time to time employs various hedging techniques, it is not possible to hedge fully or perfectly against any risk, and hedging entails its own costs.

An investor considering the funds should be able to tolerate potentially wide price fluctuations. The Fund is subject to high portfolio turnover risk as a result of frequent trading, and thus, will incur a higher level of brokerage fees and commissions, and cause a higher level of tax liability to shareholders in the Fund. Since the Fund may also attempt to increase its income or total return through the use of securities lending, it may be subject to the possibility of additional loss as a result of this investment technique.

There are risks involved with investing including the possible loss of principal. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Diversification does not eliminate the risk of experiencing investment losses.
